SPENCER COOPER, : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1886.

FOR JUDGE 17TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT,

J. BAMFORD WHITE,

OF ESTILL COUNTY.

WE are authorized to announce

HON. W. P. TAULBEE,

Of Magoffin county, a candidate for Congress in the Tenth Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

"Bread is the staff of life," but it is powerful comforting about this time of year to lean on a mass of bacon and beans.

A contemporary says of some students,

"We expect to hear their voices in the pulpit, on the stump and at the bar."

Don't miss you may, and "Them's Mine" will be the purport of the remarks of the two latter classes often than any thing else.

After one of the most disgraceful wranglers that ever occurred in a Democratic Convention in this State, Joseph Barbour, of Henry county, received the nomination for Superior Court Judge in the Second district, at 3 o'clock A. M. last Friday.

nied by two of Belfast's gallant knights, G. L. Stinson and a Mr. Ferguson.

Mr. R. M. Cecil and daughter Lou, of your State, have been visiting friends and relatives of this place. They started for home Monday morning last.

Madam Rumor says, we are to have a "Hurt Glass Pie" (Gillespie) wedding ere long. Just so they don't hurt the Glass Pie too bad, let it drop.

Misses Jennie Green and Ella Cecil have been visiting Miss Florence Brown, in Richlands, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John Young, of Sinking Water, is visiting her daughter of this place now, Mrs. E. B. Scott.

R. F. Cecil is having a porch built to his dwelling, which will be useful as well as ornamental.

Mr. T. M. Scott is very near death's door, not expected to live. His wife is also very ill.

Miss Mollie B. Wingo, of Steelsburg, is visiting friends and relatives of this place now.

Born—To the wife of Mr. Peter James, a fine girl. Pete is happy.

Miss Lizzie Repass was right sick yesterday, but is out again.

THE HERALD OF HAZEL GREEN.

BY ALICE AMYX.

When loneliness doth hover round

And cause my heart to roam,

I look and with anxiousness

For some kind word from home;

A word from loved and absent ones,

Whom memory holds most dear,

And these I find contained within

THE HERALD'S words of cheer.

The progress of our childhood's home,

Its hopes and enterprise;

The thrilling look of hopefulness

That surely round it lies,

Are propagated and sustained

With great proficiency.

By this, our Advocate, who pleads

With much efficiency.

There should not be a mountain man,

Who has an interest,

Or feels inclined at least to aid

In home's development,

That should not heartily support

THE HERALD'S life needs,

And cultivate the germs of life

By cradling out the weeds.

Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral

Should be kept constantly at hand, for use in emergencies of the household.

Many a mother, startled in the night by the ominous sounds of Croup, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gasp for air. In such cases Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma

Gedney, 159 West 128th St., New York,

writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with Croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half
